Quick Hitters

•UNH is 7-5 in the Sean McDonnell era in games following a regular-season bye week. The Wildcats have dropped three of their last four post-bye games, including a 13-3 setback at the hands of William & Mary last season that ended a school-record 12-game home winning streak. The 'Cats are 1-1 versus Richmond following a bye under Coach Mac, with a 31-10 loss Oct. 14, 2000, and a 20-19 victory Oct. 12, 2002.

•WR Joey Orlando was named the CAA Special Teams Player of the Week, the CFPA National Punt Return Performer of the Week, received a Gold Helmet Award from the N.E. Football Writers, was tabbed as a College Sporting News All-Star and was named the Beyond Sports Network FCS Offensive Player of the Week after scoring a career-high three touchdowns in the Wildcats' 48-41 overtime victory at Lehigh on Sept. 10. Playing in his hometown, Orlando nabbed the 25-yard game-winning reception on the first play of overtime, amassed a personal-best 166 receiving yards on 10 catches, which matched a career high, registered a 17-yard TD reception in the second quarter that put him over the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career and returned a punt 56 yards for a touchdown in the third quarter. It was the first punt return for a score by a Wildcat since now-Chicago Bear Corey Graham's 51-yarder against Stony Brook on Sept. 16, 2006.

•LB Matt Evans earned the CAA Defensive Player of the Week and the Beyond Sports Network FCS Defensive Player of the Week honor after collecting a career-high 24 tackles, including 17 solo stops and one tackle for loss at Lehigh on Sept. 10. The middle linebacker leads all of FCS football with 19.0 tackles per game and 25 solo stops, and his 38 total tackles lead the CAA. The 24 tackles were the most recorded by a CAA player since Richmond's Adam Goloboski made 26 tackles against Delaware on Nov. 13, 2004.

•QB Kevin Decker was named the CFPA National Performer of the Week and the QB Performer of the Week after notching the first 300-yard passing day of his career. He completed 23 of 34 passes for 330 yards and three TDs Sept. 10. The senior co-captain also rushed 11 times for 44 yards and two touchdowns in the triumph. Decker leads the CAA in passing yards per game (246.0) and total offense (282.5), and he is ranked 16th in the NCAA in completions/game (22).

HEAD COACH SEAN McDONNELL

Sean McDonnell, a 1978 University of New Hampshire graduate, is in his 13th season as the head coach at his alma mater with a career record of 88-58. In 2010, McDonnell's Wildcats collected victories against five ranked opponents, a University record, en route to an 8-5 campaign. New Hampshire qualified for the NCAA Division I FCS Championship for the seventh consecutive season, the longest active streak in the nation. Further, UNH advanced to the quarterfinal round for the sixth time in those seven years after dispatching Bethune-Cookman, 45-20, in a second-round encounter before suffering a quarterfinal loss at eventual national championship game participant Delaware, 16-3. During this remarkable seven-season run of success, the Wildcats have posted a mark of 65-25 for a .722 winning percentage. They have been ranked in The Sports Network/Fathead.com Top 25 for a Colonial Athletic Association (CAA)-leading 97 consecutive weeks, dating back to Sept. 13, 2004.

McDonnell was feted as the 2010 Division I FCS Coach of the Year by the New England Football Writers, the third time he's been honored (2005, '08). During the course of the '10 campaign, the 'Cats earned their 12th straight home victory—a school record—by shutting out No. 11 Richmond, 17-0, on Homecoming. Two weeks later, UNH made history by topping No. 12 UMass, 39-13, in the inaugural Colonial Clash at Gillette Stadium. The game was witnessed by 32,848 fans, the largest football crowd in CAA history.

McDonnell has guided UNH football to the upper echelon of the FCS and has recruited several All-Americans and NFL-caliber players, including the likes of Walter Payton Award-winning QB Ricky Santos (2005) and the all-time NCAA FCS record holder for TD catches in WR David Ball (2003-06), who surpassed Jerry Rice's career mark of 51 TDs with his 58 scoring receptions.

In 2009, UNH finished 10-3 and won its second straight CAA North Division championship. The Wildcats continued to be giant killers by knocking off an FBS opponent for the fifth straight time, securing a hard-fought 23-16 triumph at Ball State. Previous FBS opponents to feel the wrath of the Wildcats during the amazing upset run were Army (2008), Marshall ('07), Northwestern ('06) and Rutgers ('04). UNH was the only team to defeat eventual FCS national champion Villanova on Homecoming (28-24). The Wildcats also posted an impressive win on the road at McNeese State, defeating the Cowboys, 49-13, in the first round of the NCAA playoffs.

New Hampshire notched a 10-3 record in 2008, including a defeat of Southern Illinois in the first round of the NAAs before a quarterfinal-round setback at Northern Iowa. UNH finished the season ranked No. 7 or No. 8 in most national polls, and McDonnell was honored as the New England FCS Coach of the Year for the second time in his tenure.

In 2007, the Wildcats were 7-5 overall and just narrowly missed upsetting No. 1 Northern Iowa in the first round of the NAAs, losing on a last-minute TD, 38-35, at the UNI Dome. The Wildcat offense, ranked 16th in the nation, averaged over 400 yards per contest.

The Wildcats were ranked as high as No. 1 in the nation in 2006 and finished the season ranked No. 6 after defeating Hampton in the first round (41-38) of the NCAA Championships.

In 2005, McDonnell was honored as the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year by The Sports Network after leading his Wildcats to a record-breaking 11-2 season, an Atlantic 10 Championship title and a second straight NCAA appearance in the I-AA quarterfinals.

McDonnell had his Wildcats ranked No. 1 in the nation at the end of the 2005 regular season. In 2005 the Wildcats played two nationally-televised NCAA postseason games on ESPN at Cowell Stadium, beating Colgate in the first round before succumbing to Northern Iowa in the NCAA quarterfinals.

In 2004, his hard work rebuilding the program paid off in a 10-3 overall record and a 6-2 mark in the Atlantic 10, which earned the team the Northern Division Championship title. UNH earned a bid to the NCAA I-AA Championships for the first time since 1994 and advanced to the quarterfinals for the first time in the history of the program. UNH won its first-ever NCAA contest under McDonnell, upsetting Georgia Southern in the first round, 27-23, on national television. McDonnell was named a finalist for the Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year and was selected District Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA).

In 2003, UNH steadily improved as the season went on and the Wildcats went on to win three of their last four contests, including an upset victory over top-25 squad, Maine. The team's 5-7 record could have easily been above .500, as UNH narrowly lost to No. 1-ranked Delaware on a missed field goal in the closing seconds, and UNH was driving for the game-winning TD late in the Division I contest at Central Michigan, but ran out of time. UNH posted impressive victories over the likes of top-ranked Massachusetts, Dartmouth and Richmond. The Minutemen were ranked 17th in the nation when the Wildcats defeated them by a 31-14 margin at Cowell Stadium.

In 2002, McDonnell's offense was one of the most prolific in I-AA football and averaged 449.2 yards per contest and 36.7 ppg. In the victories over the likes of Hampton, James Madison, Dartmouth and Massachusetts the 'Cats scored 37 ppg and scored over 40 points in two of the victories. UNH finished with a 4-7 overall record in 2001.

In 2000, the Wildcats were ranked as high as 23rd in the nation and knocked off three top-25 opponents, including Hampton (31-17), Massachusetts (24-16) and No. 2 Delaware on Nov. 4 (45-44 OT). Injuries squashed UNH's chances for a playoff berth down the stretch, but UNH opened the campaign with a 4-0 record, its best start since 1977 when the Wildcats won seven straight games. UNH finished the season with a 6-5 record and finished tied for fourth in the Atlantic 10. As a result of his outstanding coaching performance, McDonnell was named the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston College Head Coach of the Year.

In his rookie debut, McDonnell led the Wildcats to a 5-6 overall record and oversaw a wide-open offensive attack that led the Atlantic 10 with an average of 457.3 yards per game.

McDonnell was named the 19th head coach of the UNH football program on April 22, 1999. McDonnell replaced legendary head coach Bill Bowes, who retired after 27 years as the mentor of the Wildcats.

McDonnell served eight seasons as a Wildcat assistant and completed his fifth year as the team's offensive coordinator in 1998. McDonnell rejoined the Wildcats as an assistant coach before the 1991 spring camp and worked with the quarterbacks and receivers for his first three seasons. In 1997, McDonnell was named the recipient of "The College Assistant Coach Award" by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston in recognition of his quality of performance, loyalty and longevity.

A native of Saratoga Springs, N.Y., McDonnell was a standout defensive back for UNH. He started for the 1975 and 1976 Yankee Conference championship teams and came back to start for the 1978 squad. After his graduation from UNH, he spent one year as an assistant coach at Manchester (N.H.) Memorial High School and followed that up with a three-year stint at Manchester West (1980-82). McDonnell worked as the defensive coordinator at Hamilton College for two seasons (1983-84) and subsequently spent three years (1985-87) coaching the receivers and tight ends at former conference-rival Boston University. During the 1988 campaign, McDonnell served as a graduate assistant coach at Boston College. He spent two seasons as an assistant at Columbia (1989-90) prior to his coaching debut in Durham.

Sean and his wife, Jenny, reside in Durham and are the parents of two sons: Timmy, a student at St. Michael's College (Vt.), and Tommy, a freshman member of the UNH men's basketball team.

DURHAM, N.H. – Senior safety John Greer grabbed two of the University of New Hampshire football team's six interceptions, returning his first pick 40 yards for a touchdown, and the 22nd-ranked Wildcats recorded their school-record 12th consecutive home victory by shutting out No. 11 Richmond 17-0 Saturday afternoon before a Homecoming crowd of 12,095 at Cowell Stadium. Senior safety Mike Perkins also notched two interceptions for UNH (3-3, 1-2 Colonial Athletic Association), while junior cornerback Kyle Flemings and senior cornerback Dino Vasso each recorded his third interception of the season for a Wildcats' defense that posted its first shutout since a 56-0 triumph over Iona on Nov. 12, 2005. The loss snapped an 11-game FCS road winning streak for Richmond (2-3, 0-2). UNH continually harassed Richmond backup quarterback Nick Hicks, who finished the day 9-for-27 for 64 yards and five interceptions after replacing injured starter Aaron Corp (2 of 3, INT, seven yards) following the Spiders' first offensive series. That first series ended with the Wildcats securing a 7-0 lead with 12:40 remaining in the opening quarter when Greer intercepted a third-and-3 pass from Corp along the left sideline, sprinting untouched 40 yards for his first career touchdown. Freshman kicker Mike MacArthur added the extra-point. Corp was injured on the play and did not return. The UNH defense forced a second turnover with 5:11 to go in the first when senior safety Ryan McGuinness (four tackles) knocked the ball loose from Spider running back Tyler Kirchoff (17 rushes-108 yards), and sophomore linebacker Matt Evans recovered for the 'Cats at the UNH 42. Evans finished the game with 12 tackles, including the first individual sack of his career; and senior safety Hugo Souza matched Evans with a team-leading 12 stops. The Wildcats' defense created a third turnover with 12:15 remaining in the second quarter. Facing pressure from junior defensive end Brian McNally, Hicks under-threw a deep pass to the left side that was picked off by Perkins at the UNH 35. After being held to only 64 yards of offense in the first half, the Wildcats gained 61 yards on six plays on their opening drive of the third quarter, culminating in a 20-yard touchdown pass from senior quarterback R.J. Toman to sophomore wide receiver Joey Orlando. Orlando (seven catches-93 yards) fought off defensive back Tremayne Graham to snatch Toman's corner-route pass just inside the left pylon with 12:11 to go in the third quarter, helping the Wildcats go in front, 14-0. It was the ninth touchdown pass of the season for Toman, who went 20 of 29 for 166 yards, and Orlando's third scoring reception of the year. The key play of the drive was another Toman-to-Orlando connection, as the duo hooked up for a 28-yard pass play on a 3rd-and-2 over-the-shoulder fade down the left sideline, spotting the ball at Richmond's 25. New Hampshire increased its lead to 17-0, courtesy of MacArthur's 34-yard field goal from the left hash mark with 2:25 remaining in the third. The field goal was set up by Greer's second interception of the afternoon, a pick of Hicks that was returned 20 yards from the Richmond 35 to its 15. The Spiders' best threat came late in the third quarter, when Justin Rogers (91 all-purpose yards) returned a punt 54 yards to the UNH 11-yard line. Again, though, the defense refused to yield. Perkins (five tackles) stuffed Kirchoff for two yards on first down; Rogers was wrapped up by Evans and Souza for two yards on second down; sophomores Jared Smith (career-high six tackles) and Alan Buzbee (seven tackles); combined for a sack of Hicks on third down and Hicks' fourth-down pass went incomplete. Senior Sean Jellison led the Wildcats' ground game with 15 carries for 40 yards.

SERIES NOTES

SERIES HISTORY- RICHMOND LEADS, 10-9: UNH snapped Richmond's 11-game road winning streak and modest two-game winning streak in the series with a 17-0 shutout Oct. 9, 2010. The Wildcats, who haven't dropped a home game to the Spiders since 2000, have failed to claim a victory at Richmond since posting a 42-14 triumph Nov. 5, 1994, en route to a perfect 8-0 Yankee Conference record. The 'Cats are 2-7 all-time at Richmond, including 0-3 in the Coach Mac era. The series dates back to 1986. The team's have alternated victories during the last six encounters. UNH hasn't beaten Richmond in back-to-back meetings since the 1993 and '94 seasons:

SCOUTING THE SPIDERS: Interim head coach Wayne Lineburg became the third Richmond coach in the modern era (since 1948) to start his inaugural season 3-0 or better (Jim Tait, 3-0, 1974; Jim Reid, 5-0, 1995) when the Spiders dumped VMI, 34-19, on Sept. 17. Richmond is 3-0 for the first time since 2009 when the team opened the year 8-0. The Spiders now own a 7-1 home record in their second season playing at Robins Stadium (5-1 in 2010). The Spiders climb to 43-12 (since 2007) when playing as a ranked team in the Sports Network Poll.

Wayne Lineburg was named the interim head coach immediately following the resignation of Latrell Scott on August 23, 2011. Lineburg also serves as the offensive coordinator/quar-terbacks coach.

Richmond returns 13 starters and 49 letterwinners from last season's injury-plagued team that started four different QBs throughout the season, yet still entered the final week of the regular season in contention for an NCAA Playoff spot.

The Spiders boast three members of the 2011 Preseason All-CAA Football Team in senior WR Tre Gray, junior FB Kendall Gaskins and junior K Wil Kamin. Each was a 2010 All-CAA Football selection, with Gaskins earning Third Team All-America honors from the Sports Network.

Youth will be served by the Spiders in 2011 as 25 players on the preseason two-deep were redshirt sophomores or younger. Last year, Richmond had seven true freshmen see action.

PLAYERS TO WATCH: Senior WR Tre Gray, with 18 catches and 310 yards through three games in 2011, continues to close in on the Spiders' career records for each. Gray is currently ranked third all-time in catches and fourth in yards, needing 33 catches and 446 yards to break the respective career marks. He is tied as CAA Football's second-leading receiver at 6.0 receptions/game and ranks third in receiving yards/game (103.3 yds). He was a member of the All-CAA First Team in 2010.

Junior LB Darius McMillan has recorded three straight double-digit tackle performances and leads the Spiders (ranked third in CAA Football) with 33 stops this season.

Senior QB Aaron Corp returns for his final season of eligibility, and the transfer from USC is looking for an injury-free 2011 after suffering a season-ending knee injury last year in the fifth game at UNH. Corp is regarded as one of the leading FCS signal-callers this year and was listed as one of six NFL draft "sleepers" by The Sporting News.

RICHMOND NOTES VS WILDCATS IN 2010: QB Aaron Corp was injured and lost for the season during the Wildcats' 17-0 win. Corp's final play was an interception returned 40 yards for a TD by UNH senior safety John Greer. Backup QB Nick Hicks struggled, completing just 9 of 27 throws for 64 yards and five INTs. Hicks also served as the punter, averaging 46.4 yards on five punts. The loss snapped Richmond's 11-game FCS road winning streak. Tre Gray led the Spiders with four catches for 27 yards. Among returning RBs, Kendal Gaskins led the way with 33 yards on eight carries. LB Darius McMillan collected seven tackles, including 1.5 tackles for loss, and forced a fumble.

UNH NOTES VS RICHMOND IN 2010: WR Joey Orlando recorded a then-career-high 93 receiving yards on seven catches, including a 20-yard TD reception from R.J. Toman. CB Kyle Flemings notched one of the Wildcats' six interceptions, and LB Matt Evans tied for the team lead with 12 tackles, recording a sack and a fumble recovery. Mike MacArthur kicked a 34-yard FG.

MILESTONE WATCH:

•RB Dontra Peters needs 50 rushing yards to reach 1,000 for his career.

•WR Mickey Mangieri needs 105 all-purpose yards to reach 500 for his career.

•WR Joey Orlando needs 19 receptions for 100 in his career.

EVANS LEADS NCAA IN TACKLES: Junior MLB and preseason All-America Matt Evans leads all of FCS football in tackles/game (19.0), solo tackles/game (12.5), total solo tackles (25) and ranks third in total tackles (38) after two games. Evans posted a career-high 24 tackles, 17 solo, -both career highs- in UNH's 48-41 OT triumph at Lehigh on Sept. 10. Evans was subsequently named the CAA Defensive Player of the Week and the Beyond Sports Network FCS Defensive Player of the Week.

TOP DECKER: Senior QB Kevin Decker paces the CAA in passing yards/game (246.0) and total offense (282.5), and he is tied for second in scoring/game (10.0). The co-captain is No. 16 in the NCAA in completions/game (22) and No. 20 in passing efficiency (152.46).

ORLANDO LEADING RECEIVER IN CAA: On the heels of his 10-catch, 166-yard, 3-TD day at Lehigh on Sept. 10, junior WR Joey Orlando finds himself atop the CAA and tied for sixth in the NCAA (FCS) in receptions/game (8.0), second in receiving yards/game (107.5/9th in NCAA) and fifth in all-purpose yards/game (134.5). Orlando, who returned a punt 56 yards for a TD at Lehigh, garnered the weekly Gold Helmet Award from the N.E. Football Writers and was also named a College Sporting News All-Star, CAA Special Teams Player of the Week, Beyond Sports Network Offensive Player of the Week and the CFPA National Punt Return Performer of the Week.

HARRIS SHINING IN ROOKIE SEASON: Lost in the shadow of Joey Orlando's great start has been R-Fr. WR R.J. Harris. Harris, who has been getting extended playing time at slot receiver due to the injury to Sr. WR Mickey Mangieri (concussion), has 12 catches for 153 yards and a TD in two games, and he is tied with Richmond's Tre Gray for second in the CAA in receptions/game (6.0). His 76.5 receiving yards/game are fourth-best in the conference. Harris played a huge role in the 48-41, overtime win at Lehigh on Sept. 10, nabbing a career-high eight catches for 107 yards. He registered his first career TD catch (12 yards) and was on the receiving end of Kevin Decker's longest pass of the season -a 39-yard connection that set up Mike MacArthur's game-tying FG late in regulation.

ALL-PURPOSE PETERS: Junior RB/KR Dontra Peters is No. 2 in the CAA in both kick return average (25.4) and all-purpose yardage/game (187.5). Peters, who had a potential 98-yard kickoff return for a TD wiped out by a penalty Sept. 1 at Toledo, has a season-high return of 57 yards and is also the Wildcats' third-leading rusher with 18 carries for 64 yards.

FLEMINGS THE PICK OF THE LITTER: Senior CB Kyle Flem-

ings recorded his seventh career interception at Lehigh on Sept. 10 when he picked off Chris Lum at the UNH 2-yard line on the final play of the game. Flemings' seven picks are more than the entire rest of the defense combined. Flemings is the lone returning starter in a defensive backfield that lost four-year starters Dino Vasso (CB) and Hugo Souza (FS) from the 2010 squad, in addition to senior starters John Greer (S), Ryan McGuinness (S) and Mike Perkins (S).

MACARTHUR PUNTS WAY TO CFPA HONORABLE MENTION TWO

STRAIGHT WEEKS: After winning the punting job over Brad Prasky during summer camp, Mike MacArthur was impressive in his punting debut at Toledo on Sept. 1. The North Hampton, N.H., native punted four times for 188 yards, averaging 47.0 yards per punt with a long of 57 yards. He was feted with a College Football Performance Award (CFPA) FCS Honorable Mention as Punter Performer of the Week for week one. The following week, MacArthur tied his career high with a 57 yard punt at Lehigh, averaging 46.5 yards on his four punts to receive honorable mention for the second straight week. Through two games, the sophomore leads the CAA and is No. 2 in the NCAA in punting yards/game (46.8), and he is a perfect 2 of 2 in field goal attempts, including a clutch 35-yarder with 3:23 remaining in regulation to force overtime in UNH's 48-41 win at Lehigh on Sept. 10.

JEANNOT OUT FOR YEAR: At his weekly media news conference Sept. 14, UNH head coach Sean McDonnell announced that senior TE and pro prospect Chris Jeannot will miss the entire season due to recurring concussion symptoms. At the time of the announcement, the Moon Township, Pa., native ranked in the Top 5 among active Wildcats career-wise in the following categories: receptions (42/2nd); TD receptions (five/2nd); receiving yards (487/2nd); all-purpose yards (497/3rd) and scoring (30 points/5th). Jeannot, a member of the 2010 CoSIDA/ESPN Academic All-District Team and CAA Academic All-Conference Team, had a career day at Pittsburgh on Sept. 11, 2010, when he hauled in 12 receptions for 110 yards -both personal bests- versus the Panthers.

BUT JEANNOTTE RETURNS: The good news on the injury front is the return to the microphone of Jim Jeannotte, the radio voice of the Wildcats, for the Richmond game Sept. 24. The 22-time winner of the N.H. Sportscaster of the Year award was sidelined for the first two games of the campaign after undergoing double bypass surgery over the summer. Jeannotte, the voice of the Wildcats since 1981 whose UNH football broadcasting career dates back to 1974, was feted with the 2010 George C. Carens Award, presented annually by the N.E. Football Writers for contributions to New England college football. He was inducted into the NHIAA Hall of Fame in 2002 and serves on the board of directors of the Joe Yukica New Hampshire chapter of the National Football Foundation. He will work with Bob Lipman, who slides over to color commentary after handling play-by-play duties during Jim's absence on the Wildcat Sports Radio Network.

LAST TIME OUT: UNH-48, LEHIGH-41, OT, SEPT. 10, BETHLEHEM, Pa. - Playing in front of his hometown fans, Joey Orlando scored a career-high three touchdowns, including the 25-yard game-winning reception in overtime, to lift the No. 13/16 UNH football team to a 48-41 triumph over No. 14/14 Lehigh on Sept. 10 at Goodman Stadium. Orlando notched a career-best 166 receiving yards on 10 catches, matching a personal best. The junior wide receiver also recorded a 17-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter that put him over 1,000 career receiving yards and returned a punt for a touchdown in the third quarter. UNH (1-1, 0-0 CAA) evened its record by winning its first overtime game since Nov. 18, 2006, at Maine. Lehigh (1-1, 0-0 Patriot League) suffered its first defeat despite rallying from an 18-point, second-half deficit to grab a 41-38 lead with 4:35 remaining in regulation. The Wildcats forced overtime when Mike MacArthur booted a 35-yard field goal with 3:23 left in regulation. Kevin Decker registered the first 300-yard passing game of his career, completing 23 passes (career-high matching) in 34 attempts for 330 yards and three touchdowns while also rushing for a pair of two-yard touchdowns. Decker's final throw of the day came on the first play of OT, when he found Orlando in the front left corner of the end zone. Orlando, who was bumped out of bounds on the play, was able to come back into the field of play to make the tumbling reception. Matt Evans tallied a career-high 24 tackles for a defense that recorded three interceptions, including the game-ending interception by Kyle Flemings at the UNH 2-yard line on the final play of OT. Lehigh quarterback Chris Lum went 36 of 54 for 401 yards and six touchdowns in the losing effort. Jake Drwal led the Mountain Hawks with 11 catches for 142 yards and two touchdowns; Zach Barket added 10 receptions for 84 yards and two touchdown catches. Orlando's career-high 56-yard punt return for a TD with 12:29 left in the third quarter increased New Hampshire's lead to 31-20 following MacArthur's PAT. It was UNH's first punt return for a score since now-Chicago Bear Corey Graham's 51-yarder versus Stony Brook on Sept. 16, 2006. The Wildcats then parlayed their first forced turnover of the season into points when safety Manny Asam picked off Lum at the Mountain Hawks' 29, returning it three yards to the 26. Two plays later, following a 14-yard run by Dontra Peters (11 carries-44 yards), Decker hit R.J. Harris (eight catches-107 yards-TD) for a 12-yard touchdown, the first of Harris' career, with 11:51 left in the third quarter for a 38-20 lead. The Wildcat defense snuffed out Lehigh's next drive when Chris Beranger intercepted Lum's 3rd-and-10 pass from the UNH 14 in the end zone with 6:43 remaining in the third quarter. The Mountain Hawks turned the tables when Sam Laughery stripped Orlando on a punt return, with Tyler Ward recovering at the UNH 11. Three players later, Lum zipped in a 10-yard scoring strike to Drwal that reduced New Hampshire's lead to 38-27 with 2:10 left in the third quarter. Lehigh forced a UNH punt and then strung together its longest drive of the game. Lum's fifth touchdown pass of the day, a four-yard hookup with Keith Sherman, ended a nine-play, 80-yard drive that milked 4:25 off the clock. The PAT failed, keeping UNH's lead at 38-33 with 11:03 left in the game. The Hawks seized their final lead of the contest when Lum found Drwal for an 11-yard TD on a 4th-and-3 with 4:35 left in the fourth. Ryan Spadola (five catches-70 yards-TD) was on the receiving end of the successful two-point conversion, staking Lehigh to a short-lived 41-38 lead. After receiving the game's opening kickoff, UNH marched 65 yards on nine plays and scored the game's first touchdown when Decker bootlegged for a scoring run on 3rd-and-goal from the 2-yard line. Orlando made two catches for 46 yards on the drive, including a 38-yard reception that put the ball at Lehigh's 2. MacArthur's point-after staked the Wildcats to a 7-0 lead with 12:13 remaining in the first quarter. Lehigh answered right back, orchestrating a seven-play, 64-yard scoring drive on its initial possession. Facing a 4th-and-5, Barket took a short pass from Lum and raced 26 yards to the end zone for his first TD of the game. The PAT tied the game, 7-7, with 9:32 left in the first quarter. The Lum-to-Barket connection would give the Mountain Hawks their first lead of the contest with 4:06 left in the first when the backpedaling signal caller lofted a fade to the running back along the right sideline for a 10-yard touchdown. The six-play drive was preceded by cornerback Bryan Andrews' interception of a Decker pass, which was returned 15 yards to the UNH 45. Wildcat defensive tackle Jared Smith (Greencastle, Pa.) blocked the extra point attempt, holding Lehigh's lead at 13-6. The Wildcats went back on top, 14-13, by engineering a 14-play, 75-yard drive on their next possession. Decker accounted for 65 of those yards, throwing for 50 yards on 6-of-6 passing and carrying four times for an additional 15 yards. He finished off the drive with his second score of the day, spinning away from a tackle on a two-yard touchdown rush. MacArthur's PAT snapped the tie with 14:05 left in the second quarter. Once again, though, the Mountain Hawks moved back in front by putting together a seven-play, 78-yard drive. Lum threw his third touchdown pass of the day, a 12-yard strike to Spadola, giving Lehigh a 20-14 lead with 10:18 left in the first half. The fourth lead change of the first half came with 7:16 left before the intermission. The Wildcats went 70 yards on eight plays, culminating with Decker, rolling to his left, finding Orlando in the end zone for a 17-yard scoring pass that permitted UNH to recapture the lead, 21-20. Orlando, who had earlier kept the drive alive by leaping for a six-yard, 4th-and-2 reception at the Lehigh 23, went over the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career with the touchdown grab.

UNH increased its lead to 24-20 on MacArthur's first field goal of the season, a 25-yarder with 44 seconds remaining in the half. Decker was 4-of-5 for 73 yards on the drive, with Justin Mello making a career-high 31-yard reception and Harris hauling in a pair of passes for 31 yards on the 10-play, 80-yard excursion.

FOLLOWING A BYE: UNH has had mixed results when playing after a bye week, posting a 7-5 mark in the Coach Mac era, though only 3-4 in the last seven encounters. In 2010, UNH had its school-record 12-game home winning streak snapped by William & Mary, 13-3, at Cowell Stadium following an open week. Here are results for UNH following an open week in the Coach Mac era:

GRUELING SCHEDULE: In 2010, UNH set a school record by knocking off five ranked opponents en route to a national-leading seventh consecutive appearance in the NCAA D-I FCS Championship tournament. The Wildcats face arguably a tougher slate in 2011. Following the season-opening loss at Toledo on Sept. 1, an FBS school that went to a bowl game last season, UNH continued a month-long road trip with an overtime victory at then-No. 14/16 Lehigh on Sept. 10. Next up: a date with No. 5/7 Richmond this weekend. All told, five of New Hampshire's 9 remaining opponents are currently ranked and the other four are in the others-receiving-votes category. Here is a look at the list of opponents and their current rankings:

STERITI STREAKS TO PAYDIRT-SEPT. 1: RB Nico Steriti atoned for a fumble earlier in the contest by racing 87 yards for a fourth-quarter touchdown at Toledo in the season opener Sept. 1. The redshirt freshman's TD run in his first college game was UNH's longest play from scrimmage since Chad Kackert's 87-yard TD run at UMass in the 2006 NCAA D-I quarterfinals at McGuirk Alumni Stadium on Dec. 2, 2006.

HELLO, MELLO-SEPT. 1: Sophomore WR Justin Mello proved that the Fall Blue-White Game was no fluke. After leading the Wildcats with five catches for 83 yards in August's intrasquad game, the Dartmouth, Mass., native tied for the team lead with five catches for a team-best 52 yards in the loss at Toledo on Sept. 1. Both were good for career highs for Mello, who totaled three catches for 31 yards during the entire 2010 campaign.

- ✓ Beyond Sports Network Preseason All-American
- ✓ College Sporting News Preseason All-America
- ✓ The Sports Network/Fathead.com All-America First Team

- ✓ Buck Buchanan Award Finalist (finished 4th)
- ✓ Bill Knight Trophy Winner (MVP of UNH/UMass game)

EVANS TOP STOPPER IN NEARLY 30 YEARS: With a CAA-leading 156 tackles in 2010, Matt Evans put together the best single-season total for a UNH player in 29 seasons and the second-best in school history:

Rank	Player (Year)	Tackles
1.	Steve Doig (1981)	195
2.	Matt Evans (2010)	156
3.	Chris Robinson (2003)	136
T-4.	Aaron Thomas (2004)	130
T-4.	Jeff Pammer (2007)	130
T-4.	Husain Karim (2007)	130

PRESEASON WATCH LIST: DE BRIAN MCNALLY #98: Senior co-captain Brian McNally led the CAA with a school-record 13.5 sacks last season, prompting his inclusion on a number of preseason All-America Teams and Watch Lists. Here is a look at the Cornwall, N.Y., native's honors:

- ✓ FCS Senior Scout Bowl All-American
- ✓ College Sporting News All-America
- ✓ CAA All-Conference Team
- ✓ The Sports Network/Fathead.com All-America Second Team
- ✓ Phil Steele's All-American Second Team
- ✓ Phil Steele's All-CAA First Team

McNally was decorated with a number of accolades following the 2010 season:

- ✓ College Sporting News Sweet-63 All-America
- ✓ ECAC FCS All-Star
- ✓ FCS All-New England Team
- ✓ All-CAA First Team
- ✓ Phil Steele's FCS All-America Third Team

BRIAN SACK-NALLY: Brian McNally's 13.5 sacks were the highest single-season total in school history. McNally, the CAA leader in the category, collected eight more sacks than the league's second-most prolific sack artist, Martin Parker of Richmond. Here is where the senior co-captain's efforts ranked among UNH's all-time single-season pass-rush specialists:

Rank	Player (Year)	Sacks
1.	Brian McNally (2010)	13.5
2.	Dwayne Sabb (1991)	11.5
3.	Mike Foley (1993)	11.0

FALL BLUE/WHITE GAME RECAP: Kevin Decker completed 18 of 20 passes for 272 yards and three touchdowns to guide Team Wild to a 44-20 triumph over Team Cats in the University of New Hampshire football team's Blue-White Game at Cowell Stadium on August 23. Nico Steriti rushed seven times for 49 yards and three touchdowns, and Chris Setian paced the running attack by barreling his way to 78 yards on eight carries. Justin Mello was the top receiving target, snaring five receptions for 83 yards and two touchdowns. Tim Farina also amassed five catches for 57 yards, while Chris Jeannot (four catches-46 yards) and Jimmy Giansante (three catches-27 yards) each registered a touchdown catch.

Defensively, Akil Anderson collected a team-high 10 tackles and chipped in with a pass break-up. Tre Williams supplied eight tackles and a pass break-up, Chad Wilkes tallied seven stops and Tyrone Conley notched five tackles, two tackles for loss, and a sack.

Decker orchestrated scoring drives on all five possessions in which he played, beginning with a 48-yard scoring strike to Mello just 41 seconds into the game. Following an extra point from Mike MacArthur, it was a 7-0 lead for Wild.

After Christian Breda cut the Cats' deficit to 7-3 with a 35-yard field goal, A.J. DeLago responded for Team Wild with a 37-yard kick to up the lead to 10-3.

Steriti rushed for a pair of first-quarter touchdowns, scoring on a seven-yard scamper and leapfrogging a defender for a three-yard score, bumping Team Wild's lead to 24-3 after one.

James Brady solidified a hold on the backup quarterback position by going 17 of 24 for 191 yards and a 16-yard scoring strike to Mello.

Andy Vailas was 11-for-15 for 54 yards, including a 10-yard TD pass to Giansante, and Sean Goldrich completed six of nine passes for 84 yards.

EVANS, MCNALLY PRESEASON ALL-CAA; UNH PICKED TO FINISH 4TH: UNH senior co-captain Brian McNally and junior linebacker Matt Evans were named to the 2011 Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Football Preseason All-Conference Team. The announcement was made as part of the annual CAA Football Media Day at M&T Bank Stadium on July 27.

McNally, who set UNH's single-season record with a CAA-best 13.5 sacks last season, garners preseason All-CAA honors for the second straight year. Previous league accolades for the 6-foot-3, 266-pound defensive end consist of a spot on the 2010 All-CAA First Team after he amassed 42 tackles, 25 solo, highlighted by a team-leading 15 tackles for loss, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery in 13 games—all starts. He was also named the CAA Defensive Rookie of the Year in 2008.

Evans' berth on the CAA Preseason All-Conference Team comes on the heels of his All-CAA Second Team recognition in 2010. The 6-foot, 233-pound middle linebacker ranked third in FCS football with 156 tackles last year, which was the second-highest single-season total in UNH history. His 79 solo stops ranked third nationally, and his 12.0 tackles per game placed him fifth in the FCS. He was feted as a College Sporting News

Sweet-63 All-America, a Walter Camp FCS All-America and an A.P. All-America Second Team member. Evans was the Wildcats' leader in tackles in nine of their 13 games, notched double-digit tackles 11 times and set a career high with 20 stops Nov. 6 versus William & Mary. Overall, the then-sophomore posted four sacks, 10.5 tackles for loss, two interceptions, including a 25-yard pick-six against Towson (Nov. 20), three forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries, highlighted by a 17-yard touchdown return at James Madison (Oct. 16).

The Wildcats were picked to finish fourth in the CAA in voting conducted among league head coaches and media personnel. UNH, which received two first-place votes, trails only pre-season favorite William & Mary (12 votes), James Madison (4) and 2010 national finalist Delaware (2).

MCNALLY, FLEMINGS, JENKINS NAMED SENIOR SCOUT BOWL ALL-AMERICANS: Senior defensive end Brian McNally has been selected as a 2011 preseason football All-American by the FCS Senior Scout Bowl selection committee. Cornerback Kyle Flemings earned Second-Team honors, and defensive end James Jenkins received honorable mention.

The FCS Senior Scout Bowl is a postseason all-star game showcasing the talent of senior players from the NCAA FCS level. The game is presented by the Collegiate Development Football League and will be held Dec. 17, 2011 in Myrtle Beach, S.C. Player selections for this game begin with the announcement of the FCS Senior Scout Bowl All-American team. This team recognizes the football achievements of senior players who are entering their final season on the FCS level. Last year's inaugural game was played at the Joseph St. Lawrence Sports Complex Stadium in Ramapo, N.Y.

During his junior campaign, McNally was feted as a College Sporting News Sweet-63 All-America, an ECAC All-Star, a member of the FCS All-New England team, Phil Steele's FCS All-America Third Team and All-CAA First Team.

Flemings, who started all 13 games at cornerback last season, tied for the team lead with eight pass break-ups, notched four interceptions, including picks in three straight games (Sept. 25-Oct. 9), compiled 30 tackles, recovered two fumbles and forced a fumble.

Jenkins, who started opposite McNally at defensive end for all 13 games in 2010, led all Wildcat DEs with 43 tackles, including 6.5 tackles for loss, and four sacks.

The FCS Senior Scout Bowl selection committee will review player performance throughout the 2011 season and is committed to bring 86 of the top players to the FCS Scout Bowl in a "North versus South" format.

ZARKOSKIE NOMINATED FOR ALLSTATE AFCA GOOD WORKS

TEAM: UNH junior OL Chris Zarkoskie has been nominated for the 2011 Allstate American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Good Works Team®, it was announced by Allstate Insurance Company and AFCA on July 19. The Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® recognizes the selfless contributions to volunteerism and community service made by college football student-athletes across the nation.

Zarkoskie, who started all 13 games at center for the Wildcats last season, volunteers his time to welcome members of the U.S. Armed Forces back from service overseas and to bid them well upon deployment as a member of the "Pease Greeters" at Portsmouth International Airport at Pease International Tradeport in Portsmouth, N.H. He received the 2010-11 CAA Commissioner's Academic Award and was named to the 2010 CAA Academic All-Conference Team.

Away from campus during semester breaks, the 6-foot-1, 288-pound psychology major has volunteered at the Kessler Institute for Rehabilitation in West Orange, N.J., distributing the Eucharist since his senior year of high school. Zarkoskie was a retreat leader during his high school career and was deeply involved in Habitat for Humanity, a non-profit, ecumenical Christian housing organization that builds simple, decent, affordable housing in partnership with people in need. He was feted with the Most Representative Setonian award at Seton Hall Preparatory School as the graduating senior who best represented the idealized graduate by demonstrating academic and athletic success while being community oriented, caring and dedicated to self-sacrifice.

From the nominees submitted by sports information directors across the nation on behalf of their schools, a special voting panel consisting of former Good Works Team® members and prominent college football media members will select two 11-player Good Works Teams® – one comprising of players from the NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision and another representing players from the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision, Divisions II, III, and the NAIA. The 22 student-athletes named to the 2011 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team® will be announced in late September.

DECKER & McNALLY NAMED CO-CAPTAINS: Senior QB Kevin Decker and senior defensive end Brian McNally will serve as captains for the 2011 University of New Hampshire football team, head coach Sean McDonnell announced May 5. The duo was honored as the result of a team vote during the final week of spring practice.

Decker is poised to take over the starting quarterback position this fall after serving as the backup to incumbent R.J. Toman, a 2010 co-captain, for three seasons. Decker completed 46 of 67 passes for 447 yards with five touchdowns and one interception in '10. Filling in for the injured Toman in the Wildcats' NCAA Division I second-round playoff game at Bethune-Cookman on Dec. 4, Decker set career highs in completions (23), attempts (35), yards

(289) and touchdowns (three) in UNH's 45-20 triumph.

McNally is coming off one of the greatest seasons ever compiled by a New Hampshire defensive player. The 6-3, 256-pound defensive end was named a College Sporting News Sweet-63 All-America, an ECAC All-Star, FCS All-New England and All-CAA First Team in 2010 after establishing the University's all-time single-season record with a CAA-leading 13.5 sacks. McNally paced the 'Cats with 15 tackles for loss and made 42 tackles overall, highlighted by a career-high 2.5 sacks and a forced fumble in the playoff win at Bethune-Cookman.

UNH WINS CAA ACADEMIC PROGRESS RATE AWARD: The UNH football program has been recognized for its academic success and student-athlete graduation rate by receiving the Academic Progress Rate (APR) Award for the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA), it was announced May 25 by the Football Championship Subdivision Athletics Directors Association (FCS ADA).

The APR Award recognizes one institution at each of the 14 FCS conferences for compiling the top APR score, and UNH finished with the highest tally in CAA Football.

The announcement came eight days after the UNH football team, which boasts a nation-leading seven consecutive NCAA D-I postseason appearances, was the only FCS program from a public school in the country to receive an APR Public Recognition Award, as well as one of only 12 FCS schools nationally and one of just four non-Ivy League schools feted.

The National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) member colleges and universities adopted a comprehensive academic reform package designed to improve the academic success and graduation of all student-athletes. The centerpiece of the package is the academic measurement for teams, known as the APR.

The APR provides a real-time look at a team's academic success each semester by tracking the academic progress of each student-athlete on scholarship, accounting for eligibility, retention and graduation and providing a measure of each team's academic performance. By measuring eligibility and retention each semester or quarter, the APR displays a clear picture of the academic culture in each sport.

UNH ANNOUNCES SERIES VS. TRADITIONAL RIVALS: The University of New Hampshire athletics department announced April 11 agreements to resume traditional football rivalries with Dartmouth College, the College of the Holy Cross, Colgate University and the University of Rhode Island in a series of home-and-home games. The first game in this collective series is slated for October 1, 2011, against Holy Cross at Cowell Stadium.

"We are very excited to announce this series of games against strong regional opponents with proud football traditions," UNH Director of Athletics Marty Scarano said. "Combining our membership in the CAA, the best FCS league in the country, with strong non-conference foes is what allows our football program to compete for a national championship year in and year out."

The Wildcats will play host to Dartmouth on Sept. 27, 2014, before visiting the Big Green on Sept. 17, 2016. UNH holds an 18-17-2 edge in the all-time series that dates back to Oct. 2, 1901. Dartmouth won the first 16 gridiron meetings, but the Wildcats have responded with a 19-game unbeaten streak, including 12 consecutive wins. The intrastate foes last squared off on Sept. 26, 2009, with New Hampshire posting a 44-14 Granite Bowl victory in Durham.

Following this upcoming season's battle against Holy Cross, resuming a series that has been dormant for 27 seasons, the Wildcats will tangle with the Crusaders in Worcester, Mass., in a return engagement Sept. 1, 2012. Holy Cross leads the series, 6-5, including a 13-7 win in the first-ever meeting Nov. 19, 1921. New Hampshire won the most recent encounter, 14-13, on Nov. 10, 1984.

UNH welcomes perennial Patriot League power Colgate to Mooradian Field on Sept. 14, 2013, with a return date in Hamilton, N.Y., slated for Sept. 2, 2015. The Wildcats boast a 4-1 record in the all-time series, which began Nov. 22, 1986, and was last reprised in the first round of the 2005 NCAA Division I-AA playoffs – a 55-21 New Hampshire triumph.

Current league rival Rhode Island leaves the CAA following the 2012 season, but UNH and URI will continue their long-standing series that dates back to 1905 in a non-conference capacity when the 'Cats visit Meade Stadium on Sept. 21, 2013, and welcome the Rams to Cowell Stadium on Sept. 20, 2014. Currently, New Hampshire holds a 52-27-5 lead all time, but Rhody came away with a win in the most recent clash, 28-25, on Sept. 18, 2010.

"It is important for us to continue working with each of these schools to create a partnership that will extend these mutually-beneficial series beyond the two games we are announcing today," Scarano said. "It strengthens all of our programs and fortifies our unified dedication to FCS football in the region."

LYONS HIRED AS DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR: John Lyons, the second-winningest head football coach in Dartmouth College history, was hired as the new defensive coordinator at the University of New Hampshire, head coach Sean McDonnell announced Jan. 21. Lyons replaces Sean McGowan, who was hired as assistant coach for defense at Temple University.

Lyons earned 60 career victories as the head coach at Dartmouth from 1992-2004. His Big Green teams won two Ivy League championships (1992, 1996), including a perfect 10-0 season in '96 when Lyons was named the New England Coach of the Year by the New England sports writers and the Division I N.E. Coach of the Year by the Gridiron Club of Boston.

Lyons, a West Hartford, Conn. native, most recently worked at Kimball Union Academy in Meriden, N.H., where he served as football coach since 2005 and athletic director since 2008. He guided the school to three consecutive Evergreen League championships from 2007-2009.

Previously, Lyons spent three seasons (2005-07) in NFL Europe for the Cologne Centurions, the last two years as defensive coordinator. Under his tutelage, the Centurions had the league's top total defense in 2005 and 2007 and the No. 1 pass yardage defense in 2006.

While serving as defensive coordinator at Boston University from 1985-87, Lyons led the Terriers to the top rated pass defense and No. 2 total defense in the Yankee Conference during his final season.

Lyons, who graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1974, began his coaching career at his alma mater, climbing his way up from an assistant freshman coach in his first season (1974) to the role of defensive coordinator in 1984 for an undefeated Ivy League championship Quakers team that featured the No. 1 total defense in the league. He played three years at Penn, and was a Second Team All Ivy League selection.

McGowan spent seven seasons at UNH, the last four as defensive coordinator. He coached linebackers for two years (2007-08) and defensive backs for three seasons (2004-06).

OTHER UNH 2011 COACHING ADDITIONS:

•James Bettcher, LB Coach: Bettcher, a 2003 graduate of the University of St. Francis in Fort Wayne, Ind., brings eight years of coaching experience to the UNH sidelines. Prior to his one season at Ball State, where he also coached special teams, Bettcher worked as a defensive graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina from 2007-09, focusing on linebackers, defensive ends and special teams for the Tar Heels, while assisting in recruiting in Ohio, Indiana and North Carolina. In 2006, Bettcher worked as a defensive grad assistant at Bowling Green University, working with the secondary and special teams' units and aiding recruiting efforts in Ohio and Indiana. Bettcher's coaching career began at his alma mater from 2003-05 as special teams coordinator; he also worked with the strength and conditioning staff and was the head track coach in 2003 and 2004. During his career as a student-athlete at St. Francis, Bettcher was a three-time NAIA All-American Scholar, a three-time Mid-States Football Association Scholar, a two-time NAIA Coaches' All-American and a two-time Don Hansen's All-American. He earned all-conference honors three times and was the recipient of the St. Francis Helmet Award for leadership and coachability in 2002. Bettcher also was a three-time track All-American for the Cougars, where he placed second in the shot put at the 2001 NAIA Championships.

•Alex Miller, OC/OG Coach: Miller comes aboard as the centers/guards coach for the Wildcats after a three-year tenure at the University of Oregon, where he began as an intern in 2008 before working as a graduate assistant coach for offense the next two seasons. Miller worked closely with the Ducks' running game and tutored the offensive line. As a student-athlete, Miller starred as a center at the University of Massachusetts, where he started all 50 games of his collegiate career from 2003-06. The Fairfax, Va., native was feted as an All-America in his senior campaign and was a two-time member of the All-Atlantic 10 First Team. Miller received his undergraduate degree from UMass in 2007.

•Chris Van Horn, DT Coach: Van Horn joins the UNH coaching staff in 2011 as defensive tackles coach following three seasons at the University of North Carolina. In 2010, he was the on-field defensive graduate assistant for the Tar Heels and worked with the defensive line. During his first two seasons in Chapel Hill, Van Horn served in a quality control position, working with linebackers and the secondary. The Fort Wayne, Ind., native was a three-year letterwinner at St. Francis University in his hometown and began his coaching career at his alma mater, where he worked for three seasons. After two years as a graduate assistant, Van Horn was elevated to the role of defensive line coach for the 2007 season. During his playing career, Van Horn was an NAIA First Team All-America at defensive end and still holds the school's all-time record for most sacks in a season and career. He was a college teammate of UNH linebackers coach James Bettcher.

•Bobby Callahan, Assistant A.D. for Football Operations: Callahan, a former Wildcats' student manager and director of football operations, has been hired as the University's assistant athletic director for football operations. Callahan most recently served as Boston College football's assistant recruiting coordinator for head coach Frank Spaziani in 2010-11. His responsibilities included organizing all on-campus recruiting functions and serving as the recruiting office liaison to the athletic administration. During his six-year term as UNH's director of football operations from 2004-09, Callahan coordinated team travel, served as the team's video coordinator and assisted in all football administration tasks. The Randolph, Mass., native began his career as the UNH football student manager from 1997-2001. Callahan has earned two degrees at UNH: a Bachelor's Degree in Environmental Conservation in 2001 and a Master's Degree in Kinesiology: Sport Studies in 2006. He and his wife, Jodi, reside in Portsmouth, N.H.

BEST FCS-FBS WIN STREAK EVER: Between 2004-09, the Wildcats registered an unprecedented five straight victories against FBS schools. Here is a look at the unmatched winning streak:

Year	Opponent	Score	Streak
2004	Rutgers	35-24	1
2006	Northwestern	34-17	2
2007	Marshall	48-35	3
2008	Army	28-10	4
2009	Ball State	23-16	5

Overall, Coach McDonnell's record vs. FBS opponents is 5-4, with the defeats coming at the hands of Kent State (2002), Central Michigan (2003), Pittsburgh (2010) and Toledo (2011).

LONGEST PLAYOFF STREAK IN FCS: UNH has qualified for the NCAA D-I Football Championship postseason for an FCS-leading seven straight seasons. The Wildcats are 6-1 in their opening playoff games during the streak, advancing to the quarterfinals in six of the seven years of the span. Here is a breakdown of UNH's all-time playoff record, dating back to their first all-time meeting with Toledo at the 1947 Glass Bowl:

VIDEO STREAMING OF ALL HOME GAMES: UNH is once again partnering with Pack Network to provide online streaming of UNH football in 2011. In addition to streaming all live home games, the Wildcat All-Access Pass on UNHwildcats.tv also provides an in-depth archive section, interviews, highlight packages and much more. It is the ideal way for Wildcats' fans, alumni and other supporters to keep track of their favorite teams all season long when they can't make it to the games in Durham.

2010 COLONIAL CLASH: LARGEST CAA CROWD EVER: UNH made history by winning the inaugural Colonial Clash, 39-13, over UMass at Gillette Stadium on Oct. 23, 2010. The first college football game ever played at the home of the NFL's New England Patriots drew 32,848 fans, the largest crowd to ever witness a CAA conference game.

Not only was the Colonial Clash the highest-attended CAA league game in history, it was also the most viewed Comcast SportsNet New England telecast in conference history. The UNH/UMass game pulled in a 0.88 rating. The two squads will meet again Oct. 22 at Gillette in their final meeting as conference rivals. Following the 73rd rendition of this gridiron encounter, the Minutemen head to the Mid-American Conference of the FBS in 2012.

WILDCAT SPORTS RADIO NETWORK: Wildcat Sports Properties, a property of Learfield Sports, is the multimedia rights holder for UNH Athletics. The Wildcat Sports Network consists of flagship station WGIR-AM 610 in Manchester, N.H., which has been the headquarters for UNH play-by-play since 2008, and five affiliates: The Wave (96.7 WQSO-FM) in Portsmouth; WGIN-AM 930 (Rochester); WNTK-FM 99.7 (New London); WSMN-AM 1590 (Nashua) and WASR-AM 1420 (Wolfeboro). Each game is streamed live online at www.unhwildcats.com.

Jim Jeannotte, a 22-time winner of the N.H. SportsCaster of the Year award, returns as radio voice of the Wildcats in 2011, a post he's held since 1981. His UNH football broadcasting career dates back to 1974. In 2010, Jeannotte was feted with the George C. Carens Award, presented annually by the N.E. Football Writers for contributions to New England college football. He was inducted into the NHIAA Hall of Fame in 2002 and serves on the board of directors of the Joe Yukica New Hampshire chapter of the National Football Foundation.

Bob Lipman, a two-time N.H. SportsCaster of the Year, joins the network as color commentator in 2011. Lipman is the longtime voice of the N.H. Fisher Cats' baseball team and former voice of Dartmouth College football.

Nick Anastos, a 2005 Hofstra graduate, joins the broadcast team as a sideline reporter this season. Anastos previously worked as the play-by-play voice of the University of Maryland Eastern Shore and in Minor League Baseball for the State College Spikes and the Dayton Dragons.

All 11 games will be broadcast live, with the pregame show beginning 30 minutes prior to kickoff.

CONLEY TRADES HARDWOOD FOR GRIDIRON:

UNH senior Tyrone Conley, a four-year starter for the men's basketball team, walked onto the football squad in the spring as a WR. He transitioned to safety during the summer and is now listed as the backup SS.

The Burlington, Vt., native, who hasn't played football since high school, finished his stellar hoop career as the 28th member of UNH's 1,000-point club, finishing his stellar career sixth all-time with 1,304 points. Conley finished his season ranking fourth in the league at 15.4 points per game on his way to earning America East All-Conference Second Team honors. Conley also finished first in 3-point field goals attempted (680), tied for second in games played (116), third in 3-point field goals made (222), fifth in both field goals attempted (1,216) and minutes played (3,520), eighth in blocked shots (48), and 10th in both field goals made (442) and steals (115). This season he also finished first in 3-point field goals attempted (237) and fourth in 3-point field goals made (78) on UNH's single-season lists.

SPRING BLUE-WHITE GAME RECAP: Kevin Decker completed nine of 15 passes for 109 yards and two touchdowns, and Jimmy Owens ran for a 65-yard score to help Team Wild defeat Team Cats, 31-16, in the annual Blue-White Game that closed out spring football camp Saturday afternoon, May 7, at Cowell Stadium.

Mickey Mangieri, who missed all of the 2010 season after suffering a broken leg in the fall Blue-White Game, made four receptions for 40 yards and a touchdown, rushed once for 17 yards and even threw a 60-yard completion in the victory.

Chris Chandler, who was on the receiving end of Mangieri's pass, was the game's leading receiver with three receptions for 74 yards.

Defensively, Tre Williams posted a game-high six tackles for Team Wild. Manny Asam, who is transitioning to safety after playing wide receiver last season, collected a team-high five tackles for Team Cats. Jimmy Vailas, suiting up for Team Wild, amassed two sacks –bringing down his brother Andy Vailas on both occasions.

Kyle Flemings secured the game's lone interception and forced a fumble in the losing effort for Team Cats.

Decker connected with Mangieri for a 15-yard touchdown strike on the opening drive of the game, with A.J. DeLago tacking on the extra point to stake Team Wild to an early 7-0 advantage.

Later in the first quarter, Flemings intercepted Decker's pass intended for Mangieri, giving Team Cats possession at the Wild 32-yard line. That set up a 28-yard field goal from Nick Pellino to trim Wild's lead to 7-3 with six minutes remaining in the opening stanza.

Team Wild built the lead back to seven points on the final play of the first quarter when DeLago hit a 38-yard field goal for a 10-3 advantage. Mangieri, on his only carry of the game, helped set up the field goal by reversing direction on an end around to improvise his way for 17 yards to the Team Cats 21.

Mangieri used his arm to pave the way for Team Wild's next scoring drive, taking a pitch from James Brady (6-for-7, 34 yards, TD) and rolling to his right before completing a 60-yard strike to Chandler at the Team Cats 3. One play later, Brady found Joey Orlando (four catches-18 yards) in the end zone. Following DeLago's second PAT of the game, it was a 17-3 lead.

The lead would balloon to 24-3 at halftime courtesy of Decker's 10-yard TD pass to Tim Farina (three catches-seven yards-TD). DeLago was true once again on the point-after.

Team Cats scored its first touchdown of the contest in the third quarter when Alex Park (7-for-10, 70 yards, TD) hooked up with R.J. Harris (one catch-14 yards) for a five-yard score, followed by an extra point from Anthony Guidice to cut the deficit to 24-10.

Owens responded immediately by bursting through the middle of the line on the first play of Team Wild's final drive, streaking 65 yards to help build the advantage to 31-10 after DeLago's PAT.

Andy Vailas (6-for-9, 37 yards) recorded the game's final points, calling his own number on a four-yard keeper for Team Cats midway through the third quarter. The game was called at that point due to the threat of inclement weather, making the final tally 31-16.

WILDCATS HONOR FALLEN TEAMMATE TODD WALKER: Prior to the Spring Blue-White game, there was a tree-planting ceremony in honor of fallen teammate Todd Walker at the Walk of Memory in front of the UNH Field House. Director of Athletics Marty Scarano announced that the team voted to plant a swamp maple in honor of Todd because it will bloom red each fall. Head coach Sean McDonnell then presented the inaugural Todd Walker Teammate Award to senior defensive back Jason Roach. Roach, who was recognized for his selflessness and dedication as the ideal teammate, was honored by wearing Todd's uniform No. 80 during the Blue-White Game.

CELEBRATION OF TODD WALKER'S LIFE: On March 23, the UNH community celebrated the life of football student-athlete Todd Walker, 20, who suffered an untimely and heroic death on Friday, March 18, in Boulder, Colo., when he stopped a robbery and saved the life of a woman he was walking home.

Todd, an Edwards, Colo., native, was a sophomore at UNH majoring in business at the Whittemore School of Business and Economics.

Todd's final act as a Wildcat football player occurred during the team's spring competition Top Cat matt drills just before spring break. In order to earn Top Cat, an athlete must make no mistake in drills, remain in athletic stance and give 100-percent effort in finishing every drill. A Top Cat must be in complete condition to go through the drills throughout practice. Not only was Todd able to show his worth as a Top Cat, he went a perfect 12-0 in one-on-one competition to earn the prestigious Super Cat recognition, his first and only Top Cat or Super Cat award.

During his career at Battle Mountain High School, Todd was a 4.0 student, the starting quarterback, a track standout, a hockey star and a superb lacrosse player. He earned all-state honors in all four sports.

He was named the Rocky Mountain News Class 3A top specialist in 2006 and helped guide the Huskies to back-to-back high school hockey championships in 2005 and 2006.

Todd also played on Battle Mountain's 2008 high school lacrosse state championship team.

Following his high school graduation, Todd played quarterback and defensive back during a post-graduate season at Lake Forest Academy in Lake Forest, Ill., where he also competed on the track and field team. Chris Dozois was his coach:

"He was indeed a selfless contributor to our program, helping to lead the team to one of its best years ever, including the first large invitational win in over 20 years," Dozois said. "He set a new school record in the 200-yard dash and was also on the record-setting 4x100 relay team. His impact on our program was immediate, and his legacy will be long-lasting."

TOLEDO, Ohio – Kevin Decker completed 21 of 28 passes for 162 yards, throwing for a touchdown and rushing for another, but it wasn't enough to prevent 10th-ranked UNH from suffering a 58-22 loss in its season opener at Toledo on Thursday night at the Glass Bowl. Nico Steriti, in his collegiate debut, raced for an 87-yard touchdown run, the longest by a Wildcat since Chad Kackert's 87-yard TD scamper at UMass in the D-I FCS national quarterfinals Dec. 2, 2006. The Rockets (1-0, 0-0 MAC) of the FBS dominated the contest, outscoring the Wildcats (0-1, 0-0 CAA) 30-8 in the first half and scoring 35 points off five New Hampshire turnovers. The 58 points were the most allowed by UNH in the Sean McDonnell era and the most yielded by a New Hampshire defense since Nov. 19, 1988, when the 'Cats surrendered 64 points in a loss to UMass. Matt Evans led the defense with 14 tackles, including eight solo efforts, while Chris Beranger chipped in with a career-high 12 tackles. UNH scored its first points late in the first half when Decker hit Chris Setian for a three-yard touchdown to conclude a nine-play, 61-yard drive with 28 seconds remaining in the first half. It was Setian's first career reception. Decker called his own number to convert the two-point conversion, cutting the deficit to 27-8. Decker scored the second Wildcat touchdown with 4:08 left in the third quarter, breaking the plane for a one-yard score on 4th-and-goal. The extra point from Mike MacArthur trimmed Toledo's lead to 44-15. Toledo totaled 582 yards of offense and posted three scoring plays of 45 yards or more in the contest, the first meeting between the two schools in 62 years. Leading 3-0 late in the first, the Rockets' defense forced its first turnover when Decker's pass intended for TE Sean Cullen was knocked away by CB Taikwon Paige into the hands of S Diauntea Morrow for an interception, giving the Rockets possession at UNH's 30. Three plays later, Eric Page was on the receiving end of a 24-yard TD pass from Austin Dantin. Ryan Casano's PAT lifted Toledo's advantage to 10-0 with 2:24 left in the opening stanza. On the ensuing kickoff, the Wildcats had six points taken off the board when an apparent 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown by Dontra Peters was negated by a personal foul penalty. The Rockets capitalized when DT Johnathan Lamb forced a fumble that was recovered by S Charles Rancifer at UNH's 45. Backup QB Terrance Owens entered the game and threw his first pass, a TD to Bernard Reedy with 1:05 left in the first to make it 17-0. The lead ballooned to 24-0 with 9:35 left in the half courtesy of a 46-yard TD run by tailback Adonis Thomas. The drive was preceded by UNH's third turnover of the half, a forced fumble by Robert Bell that was picked up by DE Malcolm Riley at Toledo's 18. Casano tacked on two more field goals in the half, a 33-yarder with 3:23 left for a 27-0 lead and a 38-yarder on the final play of the half for a 30-8 lead. Toledo seized a 3-0 lead with 4:46 remaining in the first quarter when Casano booted a 23-yard field goal. The Rockets scored on their opening possession of the second half when Danton found Morgan Williams on a 15-yard TD pass for a 37-8 lead with 12:01 left in the third. Toledo forced its fourth turnover of the game when LB Dan Molis sacked Decker, forcing a fumble that was recovered by Bell at Toledo's 37. One play later, Dantin spotted Reedy for a 63-yard TD, lifting the lead to 44-8 with 8:58 remaining in the third period. Owens threw his second touchdown strike of the night to Danny Noble on an eight-yard rollout with 14:55 remaining in the game, allowing the Rockets to build a 51-15 lead.

BETHLEHEM, Pa. – Playing in front of his hometown fans, Joey Orlando scored a career-high three touchdowns, including the 25-yard game-winning reception in overtime, to lift the No. 13/16 UNH football team to a 48-41 triumph over No. 14/14 Lehigh on Sept. 10 at Goodman Stadium. Orlando notched a career-best 166 receiving yards on 10 catches, matching a personal best. The junior wide receiver also recorded a 17-yard touchdown reception in the second quarter that put him over 1,000 career receiving yards and returned a punt for a touchdown in the third quarter. UNH (1-1, 0-0 CAA) evened its record by winning its first overtime game since Nov. 18, 2006, at Maine. Lehigh (1-1, 0-0 Patriot League) suffered its first defeat despite rallying from an 18-point, second-half deficit to grab a 41-38 lead with 4:35 remaining in regulation. The Wildcats forced overtime when Mike MacArthur booted a 35-yard field goal with 3:23 left in regulation. Kevin Decker registered the first 300-yard passing game of his career, completing 23 passes (career-high matching) in 34 attempts for 330 yards and three touchdowns while also rushing for a pair of two-yard touchdowns. Decker's final throw of the day came on the first play of OT, when he found Orlando in the front left corner of the end zone. Orlando, who was bumped out of bounds on the play, was able to come back into the field of play to make the tumbling reception. Matt Evans tallied a career-high 24 tackles for a defense that recorded three interceptions, including the game-ending interception by Kyle Flemings at the UNH 2-yard line on the final play of OT. Lehigh quarterback Chris Lum went 36 of 54 for 401 yards and six touchdowns in the losing effort. Jake Drwal led the Mountain Hawks with 11 catches for 142 yards and two touchdowns; Zach Barket added 10 receptions for 84 yards and two touchdown catches. Orlando's career-high 56-yard punt return for a TD with 12:29 left in the third quarter increased New Hampshire's lead to 31-20 following MacArthur's PAT. It was UNH's first punt return for a score since now-Chicago Bear Corey Graham's 51-yarder versus Stony Brook on Sept. 16, 2006. The Wildcats then parlayed their first forced turnover of the season into points when safety Manny Asam picked off Lum at the Mountain Hawks' 29, returning it three yards to the 26. Two plays later, following a 14-yard run by Dontra Peters (11 carries-44 yards), Decker hit R.J. Harris (eight catches-107 yards-TD) for a 12-yard touchdown, the first of Harris' career, with 11:51 left in the third quarter for a 38-20 lead. The Wildcat defense snuffed out Lehigh's next drive when Chris Beranger intercepted Lum's 3rd-and-10 pass from the UNH 14 in the end zone with 6:43 remaining in the third quarter. n a two-yard touchdown rush. MacArthur's PAT snapped the tie with 14:05 left in the second quarter. Once again, though, the Mountain Hawks moved back in front by putting together a seven-play, 78-yard drive. Lum threw his third touchdown pass of the day, a 12-yard strike to Spadola, giving Lehigh a 20-14 lead with 10:18 left in the first half. The fourth lead change of the first half came with 7:16 left before the intermission. The Wildcats went 70 yards on eight plays, culminating with Decker, rolling to his left, finding Orlando in the end zone for a 17-yard scoring pass that permitted UNH to recapture the lead, 21-20. Orlando, who had earlier kept the drive alive by leaping for a six-yard, 4th-and-2 reception at the Lehigh 23, went over the 1,000-yard receiving mark for his career with the touchdown grab. UNH increased its lead to 24-20 on MacArthur's first field goal of the season, a 25-yarder with 44 seconds remaining in the half. Decker was 4-of-5 for 73 yards on the drive, with Justin Mello making a career-high 31-yard reception and Harris hauling in a pair of passes for 31 yards on the 10-play, 80-yard excursion.
